

Cascade Unitarian Universalist Fellowship
 www.cascadeuu.org
 Pacific Northwest District
 www.pnwd.org
 Unitarian Universalist Association
 www.uua.org

February 2009

Cascade Unitarian Universalist Fellowship · 1550 Sunset Highway, East Wenatchee WA · www.cascadeuu.org
 Mailing Address: P.O. Box 3381, Wenatchee WA 98807 · Church Phone 886-4023 · Office Administrator: Rita Salama, 630-3385, cuufink@yahoo.com
 Minister: Rev. Julie Forest, 885-2469, minister@cascadeuu.org

SUNDAY FORUMS AND SERVICES

*Forums start promptly at 9:00 am and end at 10:00 am.
 Services begin at 10:30 and end at 11:45. Childcare is available from 10:15 to 12:15.
 Join us for coffee, treats and fellowship immediately following the service.*

February 1, 2009

9:00 am Forum: Conversation with the Minister: Covenant Groups . . . Led by Rev. Julie Forest
 The topic for this forum is covenant circles. Come to find out more about them and to sign up for one. Covenant circles are open to members and nonmembers, newcomers and long-time folks.
10:30 am Service: Only the Shadow Knows . . . . . Rev. Julie Forest
 On Groundhog Day we get another chance. What are our options when we meet our shadow?

February 8, 2009

9:00 am Newcomers' Breakfast . . . . . hosted by the Newcomer Care Committee
 If you have recently started attending our services and would like to know more about us, a continental breakfast hosted by the Newcomer Care Committee is for you. It will also give you a chance to meet other newcomers and get acquainted with long-time members. The breakfast is the 2nd Sunday of every month, so if you can't make this month's, feel welcome to attend the next one. Questions? Please call LeRoy Farmer 663-7257 or Dick Murphy 884-9514.

10:30 am Service: Two Kinds of Religion . . . . . Guest speaker Rev. Dr. James Kubal-Komoto
 Haven't you always found it amazing that so many people who call themselves religious can believe such different things, especially about how to treat one another? How can such differences be explained? This sermon explores the idea that there are really only two kinds of religion in this world, most people practice either one kind or the other, and what kind they practice explains a lot.

*Rev. Kubal-Komoto and Rev. Forest are doing a pulpit exchange on this Sunday.
 Reverend James Kubal-Komoto, a popular speaker at CUUF, is in his ninth year of ministry at Saltwater Unitarian Universalist Church in Des Moines, Washington. A native of the Chicago suburbs, he holds a doctor of ministry degree from Meadville/Lombard Theological School, and lives in Federal Way with his wife, two-year-old son, and beagle.*

Following the Service: Congregational Meeting

February 15, 2009, Evolution Sunday

Hundreds of churches across the country celebrate Evolution Weekend, February 13-15, the weekend closest to the birthday of Charles Darwin demonstrating that religion and science are not adversaries, but rather allies in creating a loving, just and sustainable world.

9:00 am Forum: Humanists Among Us . . . . . CUUF leaders John Crew and Charlie Mason
 With the accelerated advancement in nearly every phase of science and technology, more and more people are troubled about the validity of their belief in the orthodox doctrines. Some have found an answer in Humanism. Could Humanism be an answer for you?
10:30 am Service: Darwin Goes to School . . . . . CUUF speaker Dayle Massey
 Dayle Massey teaches science to high school students in Leavenworth. He will be sharing his unique perspective on the challenges of teaching evolution to students with diverse religious backgrounds.

February 22, 2009

9:00 am Forum: Global Population Growth . . . . . CUUF leader Rita Salama
 Our world population is growing exponentially. Join in this discussion about what can be done to control this explosion.
10:30 am Service: West Africa to Wenatchee, a Journey of Perseverance and Faith . . . Guest speaker Tihamiyou Baba-Moussa
 Tihamiyou Baba Moussa will speak from the heart about growing up impoverished, his dream to come to the United States, and how his dream came true.
Tihamiyou Baba Moussa has been the North Central Washington regional labor economist for the state Department of Employment Security since February of 2008. Originally from Benin, a former French colony, he arrived in the states nine