

Search Committee Covenant

As the CUUF Ministerial Search Committee we covenant to:

Serve as a faithful mirror for and conduit between the Fellowship and Candidates by Seeking out, carefully listening to, and accurately recording as many voices as possible from the Fellowship
Carefully researching, listening to, and accurately reporting the history, qualifications, skills and temperament of the Candidates
Preparing and sharing honest, written and verbal reports with the Fellowship and Candidates

We will put relationship as central to our work and product by:

Meeting in person to share a meal at least once a month
Sharing the work equitably
Respecting and appreciating each other's time, effort, and ideas
Inviting and leaving space for everyone's thoughts and ideas
Meeting struggle and conflict with honesty, curiosity, and humility
Keeping humor, creativity and play in our work
Care for ourselves and each other by noticing, checking in, asking for and offering help

We will maintain integrity by:

Maintaining accurate records of our work
Keeping the details of our deliberations confidential to the committee
Holding substantive decision and discernment discussions as a whole group
Speaking with one voice in our public communications and all decisions

Sara Severson

Julie McCallister

Shannon Eisert

Deb Miller

Lynn Madsen